THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

CHANCE FOR A PRACTICAL TEST SEEMS IMMINENT.

MANY PROPOSITIONS INVOLVED

Besides "New Jerusalem" Scheme Woman Suffrage and State Institutions are Involved.

Guthrie, Okla., April 27.—"New Jerusalem," high license and local option, women suffrage and several important minor questions will come directly before the people of Oklahoma at a nearly date and they will be given an opportunity to express themselves thereon under the "initiative and referendum" clause of the state constitution.

Nine distinct propositions are now being framed either for the initiative or the referendum. Important among these is the high license and local option question, and this will probably occasion the hardest fight. The "Sons of Washington," an Oklahoma secret society, whose great object is to defeat the prohibitory law of the state, is directly back of the movement. They have, in addition, the hearty co-operation of the Model License league and the State German society.

One of the most interesting and at the same time an important question to be initiated is State Senator Campbell Russell's scheme of permanently locating the state capital on a square of land somewhere near the center of the state, blocking up the square into a city planned according to the best "city-beautiful" authorities, selling the lots and using the proceeds therefrom to build model state buildings, and requiring the inhabitants of the city to build and decorate according to a certain central plan. Senator Russell originated the idea in the first legislature and christened it "New Jerusalem." This was for a long time a joke, though many people admitted to its practicability.

Senator Russell has practically secured the 22,000 signatures to the petition necessary for getting an election on the question, and believes that the petition will be in the hands of the governor by May 1.

The republican movement to get the referendum against the general election law passed by the last legislature vies with the women suffrage petition in interest to the people of Oklahoma.

The Oklahoma Woman's Suffrage association is back of the petitions circulating for an amendment to the constitution to give both sexes equal rights to the ballot. The movement, in addition has the support of the socialist vote of the state—no small factor—as the last election gave them more than 20,000 votes. The socialists number many women among their ranks and though they have taken no formal part, it is understood that all socialists so far approached have signed the petition asking the initiative and at the same time signified their intention to vote for the "woman's side."

The socialists are also in with the republicans, to an extent in the movement getting up a petition to call an election to vote down the general election bill passed by the last legislature. More conservative republicans, while claiming that the law gives the party in power the best of the deal, admit that it is no more one-sided than any other election law, as a rule, and that the republicans themselves, if in power would frame one equally partisan. The republican state central committee, however, and the republican press have decided that the law is a vulnerable point and intend to make a fierce attack on it. Both the woman suffrage petition and the petition for the referendum against the election law will probably be in the governor's hands by June 1.

Other questions pending include the effort of school land lessees to refer the school land sale bill passed by the last legislature which authorizes the sale of 1,500,000 acres of state school land, valued at $15,000,000 others are fighting the school land leasing bill by which the 3,105,000 acres of school land are leased.

Senator Russell in addition to initiating his "New Jerusalem" bill is getting out petitions to abolish or suspend half a dozen big state institutions authorized or located by the last legislature on the grounds that such institutions should not be located until the state capital is permanently placed.

SUFFRAGISTS ENCOURAGED.

Campaign for 40,000 Names Bids Fair to Be Successful.

Advocates of woman's suffrage are feeling greatly encouraged over the outlook, according to a report at Oklahoma City headquarters yesterday.

E. A. Sanky and Mrs. Adelia Stephens, president of the Oklahoma City Suffrage association, are at work out in the state and have sent word that petitions are being signed up rapidly. Good reports have come in from Payne, Blaine and Caddo counties, while from Lincoln county came a request for 250 more petitions, meaning that 5,000 more names could be secured there.

The workers in Oklahoma City are making no complaint and always return with their petitions completely filled.

It will take about 40,000 names to secure the submission of the constitutional amendment to a vote.

Vote in Yesterday's Election.

As stated yesterday there was very little interest manifested in the city election as the democratic ticket was not contested by any opposing ticket whatever. The vote by wards is as follows: First ward 77, second ward 30, third ward 35, fourth ward 48. For the election of school trustees from the attached territory 14 votes were polled.

Grand Jury Working.

The special grand jury which commenced yesterday the investigation of the recent lynchings is down to business, other than this there is nothing which could be secured for publication. Just how long they will be in session is not known at this time.

NEW RULER FOR EMPIRE OF TURKEY

YOUNG TURKS CELEBRATE THE ENTHRONEMENT.

Mehammed Reschad Effendi Succeeds Abdul Hamid Whose Reign the People Have Opposed.

Constantinople, April 27.—The reign of Hamid II ended today with his deposition and the accession of his brother, Mehmed Reschad Effendi, as Mehmed V., a variation of Mahomet, it being considered inappropriate to assume the precise name of the prophet. Mehmed V., is the thirty-fifth Sovereign of Turkey in male descent of the house of Osman, the founder of the empire, and the twenty-ninth Sultan since the conquest of Constantinople.

The two houses of parliament, meeting as a national assembly in the forenoon, approved the decree of deposition, which was read by the Sheikh-ul-Islam, Chief of the Ulama and Supreme Judge on ecclesiastical questions. The document recites that Abdul Hamid's acts were contrary to the sacred law, and set forth a long list of crimes, the whole making a terrible indictment.

The Assembly chose Mehmed Reschad Effendi as Sultan and appointed committee to notify the de-throned sovereign and his successor of its action. The firing of 101 guns announced to the waiting people that a new sultan had been proclaimed.

The ceremonies connected with the transfer of the power were simple. The newly-chosen ruler came from his palace in gala attire and proceeded through the streets, lined with troops and cheering thousands and took the oath at the war office. He then proceeded to the parliament and later went to the Dolmabahische Palace as head of the empire where for so many years he had practically been a prisoner.

Martial law was relaxed tonight and the people gave themselves over to celebrating the victory of the Young Turk party and the end of Abdul Hamid's reign. Many buildings were illuminated and thousands of rounds were fired by the soldiers. General good humor prevailed everywhere. The question of the new cabinet has not yet been settled, but it is thought that Ahmed Riza will be Grand Vizier, while some of his associates will probably be Hilmi Pasha, the former Premier, as Minister of the Interior; Djaved Bey, as Minister of Finance, and Rifaat Pasha, as Minister of Foreign Affairs.

A Self Explanatory Letter.

Glenn, Okla., April 22.—Mr. Bone Hardin, Ada, Okla. Dear Sir and Friend: I am somewhat at a loss to know how to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to the good citizens of Ada and Pontotoc county for the great service they have rendered to the new state, and if there are any after claps I want them to draw on me for one hundred dollars. Your old friend, J. S. Alverson, Glenn, Okla.

SENATOR BAILEY WILL STAND PAT

WILL PUT UP STRONG FIGHT TO RETAIN HIS SEAT.

Opposition to State Wide Prohibition Has Weakened Him in Some Sections.

Washington, April 27.—In Texas a situation has arisen threatening the seat of Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey in the United States senate which is attracting national attention. Senator Bailey is the fighting leader of the democratic minority in the senate. While his colleague, Senator Culbertson, is technically the democratic leader and is chairman of the caucus, yet everyone understands that it is senator Bailey who is expected to stand up and make the catch-as-catch-can fights on the floor.

State wide prohibition has become an issue in Texas. Senator Bailey has publicly aligned himself against the movement. This has led Dr. Rankin of Dallas, a prohibition leader in the state and hitherto an ardent supporter of Bailey, to announce that he has withdrawn his allegiance to

USUAL DEMOCRATIC MAJORITIES BUT LIVELY CONTESTS.

City Councils in Principal Places More or Less Mixed.

Municipal elections at other places over the state yesterday were not so quiet as the one held at Ada, yet the democrats were generally successful in the election of the principal officers.

At Lawton Henry Boyle, democrat was elected mayor and the council is democratic with one exception. At El Reno the republicans elected the mayor and one alderman, the rest of the council is democratic. The hardest fought campaign in the state probably was at Oklahoma City where Henry M. Scales, democrat, was re-elected over George Dodson, republican, by a majority of about 500. Others elected are: Bob Parman, republican, city clerk; John Hubatka, republican, chief of police; Will Guthrie, republican, treasurer of school board; J. T. Highley, democrat, police judge; Elmer Trueblood, democrat, city treasurer; Will Walters, republican, street commissioner; J. S. Twyford, republican, city attorney. At Okmulgee a complete independent ticket was elected with the exception of the mayor and the city clerk who were republicans. At Muskogee A. F. McGarr, democrat, was elected mayor, the majority in the council will also be democratic. At McAlester the democrats elected the mayor and five aldermen, while the republicans secured seven seats in the council. At Ardmore the democrats made a clean sweep, and the new administration at that place starts under the commission form of government. At Sapulpa the democrats win by the narrow margin of five votes in the race for mayor. Normally the city of Norman is 150 democratic, but in yesterday's election the republicans made a clean sweep with but one exception, but the margin was close. In Guthrie the republicans of course made a clean sweep. Shawnee will have a republican mayor and a democratic council. Enid, after a hot contest came out with a democratic mayor, two democratic and four republican councilmen. At Chickasha the entire democratic ticket was elected. Practically all of the smaller towns in the state went democratic.

Board of Affairs to Form.

Guthrie, Ok., April 27.—The State Board of Affairs recently appointed by Gov. Haskell will organize tomorrow by electing one of the members chairman and the election of a secretary. It is understood that Virgil Harlow of Shawnee will be given the latter place. He was manager of Attorney General West's campaign in the first State election, and was a candidate in the democratic primaries last year for member of the legislature from Pottawatomie county.

TAFT TO BE MEASURED.

Regardless of assurances coming from his intimate friends, Mr. Taft was an unknown quantity during the presidential campaign and is so regarded today by the people of the country at large.

The president's measurement will soon be accurately taken, however. His action relative to the tariff bill as it will finally come to him for signature or veto will definitely determine his stature as a patriot and a statesman.

Senator Aldrich is well advised as to President Taft's opposition to the tariff measure as it has been framed by Aldrich, and yet the latter continues to make it more reactionary and intolerable from a downward-revision standpoint. It is not to be doubted that Mr. Aldrich, the arch-representative of the big interests, expects the president to back down.

President Taft knows that he is right in his tariff views, in demanding revision that will benefit the consumer, and he knows that the masses are with him.

Will he continue to stand as the champion of the people and with the prospect of disrupting his party by vetoing the tariff measure, or will he capitulate to the big interests which are the back bone of the republican party as it stands today? That is the question of the hour.

The final answer will determine whether President Taft is patriot or politician.

That the Big Interests have no thought of surrendering the goose that lays the golden egg was made evident in a controversy that took place on the floor of the senate the other day.

Senator Bailey in his straightforward way having intimated that the republican party was pledged to reduce the tariff taxes, Senator Aldrich jumped in with the inquiry: "When did the republican party make any such promise?"

That utterance was an indirect confession that the Big Interests have never thought of revising the tariff downward for the benefit of the consumers.

Had that confession been made prior to the last national election it would have defeated the republican party.—Oklahoman.

Protracted meeting grows in importance and interest every service. Never was the gospel presented, i. e. in our day; clearer, simpler and more practical than is being presented by Rev. C. Stubblefield. The large congregation present last night was a little crowded for seats but the brethren provided more today hence there will be ample room for all tonight. Do not fail to come, every body, and let us get right with God, while these most precious opportunities are afforded.

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES.

Being a Few Items of Interest from the News' Correspondent at Nation's Capitol.

Senator Aldrich in opening the tariff debate in the senate stated that the last congress appropriated $50,000,000 more for the next fiscal year than was needed. This is the sort of economy the tax payers are expected to ratify.

The sugar trust, steel trust and lumber trust are still in the saddle and riding rough shod over the unprotected consumers of the country.

Senator Gore has moved to place microscopes on the free list so that the people can tell if the tariff has been reduced.

The census bill is still hanging fire in the conference committee.

Congressman McGuire has returned to Oklahoma. The McGuire-Norris machine have just decided to nominate Judge Garber for governor, Gristmill, the Little Giant and others are to be run in on the side track.

Congressman Carter is inspecting the Panama Canal.

Dick T. Morgan is the only congressman in the city from Oklahoma. He hasn't quite got his conscience and countenance on straight enough to face the man in the "sod-house" that wants free lumber.

Senator Owen addressed The Daughters of the American Revolution last Tuesday night.

The insurgent Republicans, of whom there are none from Oklahoma are making life miserable for the Cannon, Aldrich, stand-pat, trust combination.

Senator Gore has received a threatening letter from a would be postmaster in his part of the state, whose confirmation is being held up. The senator says it is not the first attempt which has ever been made to blackmail him during his official life, but that no threats or injury will ever terrorize him into deserting his duty, his conscience or his constituents.—"I. C. U."

NEVADA TO REPEAT.

Interesting Dramatic Production Will Be Reproduced by Request.

At the request of quite a number of citizens and business men who failed to see the home talent play, Nevada, at the opera house last Saturday night, the company has consented to present the play again tomorrow night. This is really a first class show and if you fail to see it you have missed something worth while. It is worth the price of admission to see Jim Fauntleroy in the role of Jube, the negro. He is there with the goods and can put the typical southern coon badly in the discard.

A News reporter heard a prominent business man make the remark yesterday that he had paid a dollar and a dollar and a half to see shows that were far behind Nevada in every respect, and so have we.

Jefferson City, April 27.—The senate committee on constitutional amendments will report the proposed amendment for state-wide prohibition tomorrow but it will carry a tax rider and a provision for effectiveness in 1911. Instead of 1913, as decided by the house. The fate of the measure will depend upon the reception accorded these changes in the senate as it is considered practically certain that the house will refuse to concur in the amendment, providing for the tax rider. This portion of the proposition was voted down in the lower branch by a good vote.

A MOMENTOUS QUESTION.

But a Conclusion Is Reached Which Finally Affords Settlement.

Memphis, Tenn., April 28, 1909. T. O. Cullins, Ada, Okla.

Dear T. O.—I guess you will be rather surprised on getting a letter from me, but no doubt you will extend full pardon when you learn that I have to ask you for a suggestion in a matter which is of no little importance.

I must say it has caused me many a sleepless nights and days of anxiety. 'Tis a subject concerning which I have hesitated to speak to any one.

As I have known a whole community to be upset by the same trouble which now agitates me.

Yes, many homes have been broken up by the same cause, and I must know the worst. I dare not tell my folks, at home for I know there is only one decided answer in my distress. I come to you as a friend as I feel you understand me, and would make a suggestion without fear or favor. I realize I am asking a great deal, and while you are considering this I beg you to put aside all care and social joys and devote all your spare time with the proper consideration of the question.

Don't you think it is time to send me some more COB cigars.

I am your friend,

COL. WILLIAM CARROLL.

Governor at McAlester.

McAlester, Ok., April 27.—Gov. Haskell, accompanied by Mrs. Haskell, arrived here this afternoon. The governor was driven to the penitentiary site and will go from here to Oklahoma City at mid-night. He said he would appoint a superior court judge for this county within a week; that he thought there would be a friendly suit to determine if the board of regents or the new commission on public affairs shall contract for the buildings; that he couldn't say if he would call a special election for submission of referendum and initiative proposals, including the general election law; that there was nothing in the report that he would call a special session of the legislature to more definitely fix the preference rights of the school land lessees; that he would establish local dispensaries when a number of physicians and citizens in any locality petitioned for it. Scores of friends called on the Governor and Mrs. Haskell at the McFarland Hotel this evening.

Army Post at Ft. Sill.

Washington, April 27.—President Taft has placed his approval upon the plan to establish at Fort Sill one of the largest military posts in the country. The president made this known to Senator T. P. Gore, who called at the White House to inquire what was the executive mind in the matter.

Whether this work will be long delayed depends solely upon the condition of the finances, relating particularly to the effectiveness of the new tariff bill.

President Taft let it be understood that while he is in favor of the improvements, on a very large scale, at Fort Sill, yet it must be borne in mind that these are mighty exacting days in the government's strong box.

ASKS WRIT OF INJUNCTION.

Judge Maben Pleads That He Be Not Suspended From Office.

Yesterday afternoon an application was made by the attorneys for District Judge W. N. Maben of Shawnee, indicted for bribery and embezzlement to the supreme court for a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge John Carruthers, now sitting in the district court of Pottawatomie county, from issuing an order suspending Judge Maben from office while charges are pending against him, as had been asked by Attorney General West.

Maben's attorneys claim that the statute allowing the suspension of county officers by the district court under similar circumstances does not apply to district judges.

Before the case was taken up here a message was received from Attorney General West at Tecumseh, stating that a change of judge had been allowed, and the matter was postponed until tomorrow morning to give the attorney general a chance to return and appear in the case.

ASSOCIATED PRESS AGAIN.

Report that Another Lynching Is Probable Is Without Foundation.

A report in the Dallas News and a few other papers this morning makes it appear that Oscar Peeler, connected with the Bobbitt case, and Dave and Ed Johnson, connected with the Putnam case, are in danger of being lynched by another mob.

Such reports bear the stamp of the associated press as far as we have been able to ascertain, but they are dated from Ada and appear genuine. That these reports are fabricated and without any foundation of truth is the opinion of every citizen of Ada with whom we have talked, and it is deplorable that they should be circulated in such manner. The mob which lynched the quartette on the night of the 18th had a chance to make a clean sweep had they wanted to do so, and to think that another mob would be organized for the purpose mentioned is preposterous to say the least.

The remains of Willie Dailey, who died at Norman yesterday, arrived here today and were interred at Rosedale at three o'clock this afternoon. His parents reside seven miles west of Ada.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

Certain Ingredients That Really Grow Hair When Properly Combined.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its natural nourishment, and also creates a clean, healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarbin, although not a coloring matter or dye, is a well-known ingredient for restoring the hair to its natural color, when the loss of hair has been caused by a disease of the scalp.

These ingredients in proper combination, with alcohol added as a stimulant and for its well defined nourishing properties, perfect the most effective remedy that is known for scalp and hair troubles.

We have a remedy which is chiefly composed of these ingredients, in combination with other extremely invaluable medicinal agents. We guarantee it to positively cure dandruff and to grow hair; even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair. If there is any vitality left in the roots it will positively cure baldness. If the scalp has a glazed shiny appearance, it's an indication that baldness is permanent, but in every other instance baldness is curable.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease or loss of hair to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. If it does not cure dandruff and grow hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. We print this guarantee on every bottle. It has effected a positive cure in 93 per cent of cases where put to a practical test.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike, and in every particular better, than anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is prescribed. We urge you to try this preparation at our entire risk. Certainly we know of no better guarantee to give you. Gwin & Mays Co., West Main street, Ada, Okla.

A BASIS OF UNION AND WORK.

From the Baptist Journal.

Within denominational lines, and within the limits of toleration, there are not a few differences of opinion, which Baptists may well discuss and pass on according to their several judgments, i. e. questions lying outside of and beyond the limits marked by the Articles of Faith, which have been adopted by most of the churches and which have been recently adopted by the get-together meetings in Little Rock, Ark. It is known to a great many Baptist readers that there are two sets of Articles of Faith acceptable to American Baptists, the New Hampshire Articles and the Philadelphia Articles. They are substantially the same and it is supposed no division would be likely to occur in any church over the difference between these two documents.

When the brethren representing different sets of opinions, antagonistic to the great Conventions in the country, met in their get-together meeting in Little Rock and there and then adopted, unanimously the New Hampshire Confession of Faith, as a basis of union and co-operation, they lined up with the denomination at large on basic principles. These articles, as printed in Pendleton's Manual, are almost universally accepted by our people. It is good after so much discussion and so many divisions, on minor points, that these brethren could at least agree with the denomination, in general, on the basic principles of organization and work.

Perhaps, it would be well in this connection to say some things about Articles of Faith, lest some one, not well acquainted with the Baptist idea, by reading this article, might fall into error. Baptists hold that the New Testament is the law of Christianity, the law of the churches and the law of individual Christian life. A church can be a church without adopting any Articles of Faith. It, therefore, becomes a question, why should we have Articles of Faith at all? It is to be supposed that the practice, followed by millions of intelligent Baptists would have, underlying it somewhere, the element of reasonableness. Since the New Testament is the law of Christianity, why should we have Articles of Faith? The reason is not hard to find, if we think for a moment, that the Articles of Faith set out what these subscribing to them, believe the Scriptures teach on the several points treated. It would be an easy and cheap thing for a man to say, "I accept the New Testament as the law of Christianity" and yet interpret it altogether different from the true way The Methodists might say, "I accept the New Testament as the law of Christianity, but understand the New Testament to teach sprinkling, not immersion, for baptism." The Campbellites might say, and some do say, "I accept the Scriptures as authoritative, but I understand the scriptures to teach that baptism stands in the order of a means of salvation and that all the unbaptized are without the promise of salvation." The Unitarian might say, "I believe the New Testament to be the law of Christianity, but I do not believe in the divinity of Jesus Christ." People can, only fellowship on their understanding of the truth, and people, who are not agreed, cannot walk together. The Articles of Faith, therefore, are profitable to define the views of those who desire to enter into fellowship and co-operation with each other, whether in church life, or in the larger affairs of the Kingdom. Therefore, the Articles of Faith serve a good purpose and the churches do well to adopt them. The brethren in Little Rock did well to adopt them.

But no one would assume that the Articles of Faith express all of anybody's understanding as to scriptural teachings. They are not intended to do that. They are intended to touch on those vital points without agreement on which, there could be no real union or co-operation. Very many questions lie beyond the Articles of Faith. They are not all we believe. Sometimes these other questions create no little stir. Take the millennium discussion, the two main theories of which, as to the second coming of the Savior are the pre-millennial and the post millennial. There is often intense discussion and now and then churches have divided on these theories. There is absolutely no wisdom in such a policy. Another question not passed on at all by the Articles of Faith, which some of our brethren are very pronounced and very strong on is the question of tithing. Personally, this writer thinks no Christian ought to give less than one tenth, but he is nothing like as strong on tithing, as a New Testament law, as he is on Baptism. Such a question as that lies beyond the Articles of Faith, and is within the limit of toleration: that is to say, differences on tithing, or on other questions come in the same category. For instance, alien immersion. Among Baptists there are two views. One is that the germ of everything in the Kingdom is in the World, which is the seed of the Kingdom. This view ignores all questions of administration. The present writer has very pronounced views to the effect that when the command to be baptized was given, somebody was to do the baptizing, and that the question of administration is not open to the wide world. That question lies beyond the Articles of Faith, and it has been a question of toleration, to be settled by churches for themselves. The same remark may be made about union meetings. This writer also has very pronounced views on union meetings. In all of his ministry of forty years, he has never been in one. He can give good reasons for it. He wishes very much that the Baptists might avoid all entangling alliances. And so, about "days", Easter and such like; but none of these questions are settled by the Articles of Faith. There are many other questions just like these coming up for discussion, within denominational lines, and they follow the ebb and flow of sentiment within the denomination itself.

Now it is important to say that when all the people in a church or any other body, formally adopts a given statement of doctrine, such as the New Hampshire Confession of Faith, that every man who takes a part in such an adoption is bound to live up to the Articles of Faith. No man can, with integrity, afterwards read into the Articles of Faith what is not there, and insist on the added matter becoming a part of the base of unity and co-operation, nor can he take from the Articles of Faith and insist that he may mutilate them, and yet stand in line with those who, like himself, agreed to the basis of union. All these observations are made with a view to a practical application to a general situation.

The brethren, who adopted the New Hampshire Confession at Little Rock are bound by their own action. It is perfectly legitimate for them to oppose alien immersion, union meetings, Easter services, and a great many other things, and this writer will wish them well in doing it and join them, for none of these things look good to him, but if they insist that differences on those subjects shall be tests of fellowship and co-operation, they deny their own action and dishonor their own basis of fellowship and unity. The same thing must be said in our churches. This article is written to give emphasis to the point already made that, when we come together as Baptists on a given basis agreed upon, we must exercise that fine Christian grace of toleration and moderation as to matters lying beyond. And this article is written to emphasize still further the point that there always will be some men, who see some things large, while they do not see larger things at all. Some men cannot be followed, valuable as they may be in some ways, especially in calling attention to some truths, that perhaps, otherwise would be neglected in the general on going of things.

It will be a good thing for us if we remember that we are not likely, on this mundane sphere to all see everything just alike and, that, if we are to do any large things for the Master, it is absolutely necessary that we keep ourselves within bounds. For one, this writer can live in fellowship with brethren who hold quite a number of views which appear to him to be wrong. The apostolic churches were not perfect. The apostolic preachers were not perfect. The general plan of the New Testament is, to get together in the churches on things that are essential, and then grow a church life, lopping off errors and filling out where there is lack of development. Though it is not in the nature of an argument at all, it may give emphasis to what has been written and a practical turn to all that has been written to say that brethren who hold to any one truth, such as tithing, the present or the past view of the millennium, and put undue emphasis on it, making it too much a part of the whole, will not only fail to carry any large number of people with them, but will destroy their own opportunities to do good in a general way. This writer once, with all earnestness, presented this view of Dr. John Hall, the greatest preacher of his sort this writer has known, and he conceded the point. It was at that point that he side-tracked a great ministry. I shall never cease to regret it, for with more circumspection, he might have done far more for strict Baptist views. There is such a thing as holding the truth in proper proportion and keeping in reach of people. We write this article for everybody, but especially for those who need it the most.

TALKS ON ADVERTISING—

How Alexander Untied the Knot.

By Herbert Kaufman.

Alexander the Great was being shown the Gordian Knot. "It can't be untied," they told him; "every man who tried to do it fell down."

But Alexander was not discouraged because the rest had flunked. He simply realized that he would have to go at it in a different way. And instead of wasting time with his fingers he drew his sword and slashed it apart.

Every day a great business general is shown some knot which has proven too much for his competitors, and he succeeds because he finds a way to cut it. The fumbler has no show so long as there is a brother merchant who doesn't waste time trying to accomplish the impossible—who takes lessons from the failures about him and avoids the methods which were their downfall.

The knottiest problems in trade are:

- 1—The problem of location.
- 2—The problem of getting the crowds.
- 3—The problem of keeping the crowds.
- 4—The problem of minimizing fixed expenses.
- 5—The problem of creating a valuable good will.

None of these knots is going to be untied by fumbling fingers. They are too complicated. They're all involved together—twisted and entangled over and about each other—so intertwined that they can't be solved singly—like the Gordian Knot they must be cut through at one stroke. And you can't cut the knot with any sword except the newspaper—because:

- 1—A store that is constantly before the people makes its own neighborhood.
- 2—Crowds can be brought from anywhere by daily advertising.
- 3—Customers can always be held by inducements.
- 4—Fixed expenses can only be reduced by increasing the volume of sales.
- 5—Good will can only be created through publicity.

Advertising is breeding new giants every year and making them more powerful every hour. Publicity is the sustaining food of a powerful store and the only strengthening nourishment for a weak one. The retailer who delays his entry into advertising must pay the penalty of his procrastination by facing more giant competitors as every month of opportunity slips by.

Personal ability as a close purchaser and as a clever seller doesn't count for a hang so long as other men are equally well posted and wear the sword of publicity to boot. They are able to tie your business into constantly closer knots, while you cannot retaliate because there is no knot which their advertising cannot cut for them.

Yesterday you lost a customer—today they took one—tomorrow they'll get another. You cannot cope with their competition because you haven't the weapon with which to oppose it. You can't untie your Gordian Knot because it can't be untied—you've got to cut it.

You must become an advertiser or you must pay the penalty of incompetence.

You not only require the newspaper to fight for a more hopeful tomorrow, but to keep today's situation from becoming hopeless.

THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

CHANCE FOR A PRACTICAL TEST
NEARLY IMMINENT

MANY PROPOSITIONS INVOLVED

Besides "New Jerusalem" Scheme
Woman Suffrage and State Institutions are Involved.

Guthrie Okla. April 27—New Jerusalem high license and local option women suffrage and several important minor questions will come directly before the people of Oklahoma at a newly date and they will be given an opportunity to express themselves thereon under the initiative and referendum clause of the state constitution.

Nine distinct propositions are now being framed either for the initiative or the referendum. Important among these is the high license and local option question and this will probably occasion the hardest fight. The Sons of Washington an Oklahoma secret society whose great object is to defeat the prohibitory law of the state is directly back of the movement. They have in addition the heavy co-operation of the Model license league and the State German society.

One of the most interesting and at the same time an important question to be initiated is State Senator Campbell Russell's scheme of permanently locating the state capital on a square of land somewhere near the center of the state block ing up the square into a city planned according to the best "City-beautiful" authorities selling the lot and using the proceeds therefrom to build model state buildings and requiring the inhabitants of the city to build and decorate according to a certain central plan. Senator Russell originated the plan in the first legislature and christened it New Jerusalem. This was in a long time a joke that he admitted to its practicality.

Senator Russell recently secured the 22,000 signatures to the petition necessary for getting an election on the question and believes that the petition will be in the hands of the governor by May 1.

The republican movement to get the referendum against the general election law passed by the last legislature vies with the woman suffrage petition in interest to the people of Oklahoma.

The Oklahoma Women's Suffrage association is tick of the petitions circulating for an amendment to the constitution to give both sexes equal rights to the ballot. The movement in addition has the support of the socialist vote of the state—no small factor—as the last election gave them more than 20,000 votes. The socialist number many women among their ranks and though they have taken no formal part it is understood that all socialists so far asked have signed the petition asking the initiative and at the same time signified their intention to vote for the "woman's side."

The socialists are also in with the republicans to an extent in the movement getting up a petition to call an election to vote down the general election bill passed by the last legislature. More conservative republicans while claiming that the law gives the party in power the best of the deal admit that it is no more one-sided than any other election law as a rule and that the republicans themselves if in power would frame one equally partisan. The republican state central committee however and the republican press have decided that the law is a vulnerable point and intend to make a fierce attack on it. Both the woman suffrage petition and the petition for the referendum against the election law will probably be in the governor's hands by June 1.

Other questions pending include the effort of school land lessors to refer the school land sale bill passed by the last legislature which authorizes the sale of 1,000,000 acres of state school land valued at $10,000,000 others are fighting the school land leasing bill by which the 3,105,000 acres of school land are leased.

Senator Russell in addition to initiating his New Jerusalem bill is getting out petitions to abolish or suspend half a dozen big state institutions authorized or located by the last legislature on the grounds that such institutions should not be located until the state capital is permanently placed.

SUFFRAGISTS ENCOURAGED.

Campaign for 40,000 Names Aids
Fair to Be Successful.

Advocates of woman's suffrage are feeling greatly encouraged over the outlook, according to a report at Oklahoma City headquarters yesterday.

E. A. Sanky and Mrs. Adelia Stephens president of the Oklahoma City Suffrage association are at work out in the state and have sent word that petitions are being signed up rapidly. Good reports have come in from Payne Blaine and Caddo counties while from Lincoln county came a request for 250 more petitions meaning that 1,000 more names could be secured there.

The workers in Oklahoma City are making no complaint and always return with their petitions completely filled.

It will take about 40,000 names to secure the submission of the constitutional amendment to a vote.

Vote in Yesterday's Election.

As stated yesterday there was very little interest manifested in the city election as the democratic ticket was not contested by any opposing ticket whatever. The vote by wards is as follows: First ward 77 second ward 9 third ward 3, fourth ward 48. For the election of school trustees from the attached territory 14 votes were polled.

Grand Jury Working.

The special grand jury which commenced yesterday the investigation of the recent lynchings is down to business other than this there is nothing which could be secured for publication. Just how long they will be in session is not known at this time.

NEW RULER FOR EMPIRE OF TURKEY

YOUNG TURKS CELEBRATE THE ENTHRONEMENT.

Mehemmed Reschad Effendi Succeeds
Abdul Hamid Whose Reign the People Have Opposed.

Constantinople April 27—The reign of Hamid II ended today with his deposition and the accession of his brother Mehmed Reschad Effendi as Mehmed V a violation of Mahomet II being considered inappropriate to assume the precise name of the prophet Mehmed V is the thirty-fifth Sovereign of Turkey in male descent of the house of Osman the founder of the empire and the twenty-ninth Sultan since the conquest of Constantinople.

The two houses of parliament, meeting as a national assembly in the forenoon approved the decree of deposition which was read by the Sheikh-ul-Islam Chief of the Ulama and Supreme Judge on ecclesiastical questions. The document recites that Abdul Hamid's acts were contrary to the sacred law and set forth a long list of crimes the whole making a terrible indictment. The Assembly chose Mehmed Reschad Effendi as Sultan and appointed committee to notify the deposed sovereign and his successor of its action. The firing of 101 guns announced to the waiting people that a new Sultan had been proclaimed.

The ceremonies connected with the transfer of the power were simple. The newly-chosen ruler came from his palace in gala attire and proceeded through the streets lined with troops and cheering thousands and took the oath at the war office. He then proceeded to the parliament and later went to the Dolmabahische Palace as head of the empire where for so many years he had practically been a prisoner.

Martial law was relaxed tonight and the people gave themselves over to celebrating the victory of the Young Turk party and the end of Abdul Hamid's reign. Many buildings were illuminated and thousands of rounds were fired by the soldiers. General good humor prevailed everywhere. The question of the new cabinet has not yet been settled but it is thought that Ahmed Riza will be Grand Vizier while some of his associates will probably be Ilimia Pasha the former Premier as Minister of the Interior Djavid Bey as Minister of Finance and Rifat Pasha as Minister of Foreign Affairs.

A Self Explanatory Letter.

Glenn Okla. April 22—Mr. Bone Hardin Ada Okla. Dear Sir and Friend I am somewhat at a loss to know how to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to the good citizens of Ada and Pontotoc county for the great service they have rendered to the new state and if there are any after claps I want them to draw on me for one hundred dollars. Your old friend J. S. Alverson Glenn Okla.

SENATOR BAILEY WILL STAND PAT

RETAIN HIS SEAT.

Opposition to State Wide Prohibition
Has Weakened Him in Some Sections.

Washington April 27—In Texas a situation has arisen threatening the seat of Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey in the United States senate which is attracting national attention. Senator Bailey is the fighting leader of the democratic minority in the senate. While his colleague Senator Culberson is technically the democratic leader and is chairman of the caucus yet everyone understands that it is senator Bailey who is expected to stand up and make the catch-as-catch-can fights on the floor.

State wide prohibition has become an issue in Texas Senator Bailey has publicly aligned himself against the movement. This has led Dr. Rankin of Dallas a prohibition leader in the state and hitherto an ardent supporter of Bailey to announce that he has withdrawn his allegiance to

USUAL DEMOCRATIC MAJORITIES
BUT LIVELY CONTESTS

City Councils in Principal Places
More or Less Mixed.

Municipal elections at other places over the state yesterday were not so quiet as the one held at Ada yet the democrats were generally successful in the election of the principal officers.

At Lawton Henry Boyle democrat was elected mayor and the council 5 democratic with one exception. At El Reno the republicans elected the mayor and one alderman the rest of the council is democratic. The hardest fought campaign in the state probably was at Oklahoma City where Henry M. Sciles democrat was re-elected over George Dodson republican by a majority of about 500. Others elected are Bob Pannan republican city clerk John Hubert republican chief of police Will Guthrie republican treasurer of school board J. T. Highley democrat police judge Elmer Trueblood democrat city treasurer Will Walters republican street commissioner I. S. Ivyford republican city attorney. At Okmulgee a complete independent ticket was elected with the exception of the mayor and the city clerk who were republicans. At Muskogee A. F. McLean democrat was elected mayor and five aldermen while the republicans secured seven seats in the council. At Ardmore the democrats made a clean sweep and the new administration at that place starts under the commission form of government. At Sapulpa the democrats win by the narrow margin of five votes in the race for mayor. Normally the city of Norman is 150 democratic but in yesterday's election the republicans made a clean sweep with but one exception but the margin was close. In Guthrie the republicans of course made a clean sweep. Shawnee will have a republican mayor and a democratic council kind after a hot contest came out with a democratic mayor two democratic and four republican councilmen. At Chickasha the entire democratic ticket was elected. Practically all of the smaller towns in the state went democratic.

Board of Alders to Form.

Guthrie Ok. April 27—The State Board of Affairs recently appointed by Gov. Hiskell will organize tomorrow by electing one of the members chairman and the election of a secretary. It is understood that Virgil Harlow of Shawnee will be given the latter place. He was manager of Attorney General West's campaign in the first State election and was a candidate in the democratic primaries last year for member of the legislature from Pottawatomie county.

PAINTS & VARNISHES

There is no season of the year so fitted for Brightening Up as the present. There is no better way to improve the appearance of your house, inside or out than by the use of paints and varnishes. By keeping your house well painted it will last longer and look better. Brighten Up Finishes are used. Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes are the greatest help in housecleaning. By touching up the shabby spots in the house, such as floors, furniture, woodwork, with paint or varnish or stain the house can be made to fairly shine inside. Housecleaning will give more satisfaction than ever before. We are agents for Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes, and will be glad to give you figures on "Brightening Up" your place, inside or out. Come in and talk the matter over.

TART TO BE MEASURED.

Regardless of assurances coming from his intimate friends Mr. Tart was an unknown quantity during the presidential campaign and is so regarded today by the people of the country at large.

The president's measurement will soon be accurately taken however. His action relative to the tariff bill as it will finally come to him for signature or veto will definitely determine his stature as a patriot and a statesman.

Senator Aldrich is well advised as to President Taft's opposition to the tariff measure as it has been framed by Aldrich and yet the latter continues to make it more reactionary and intolerable from a down-to-earth standpoint. It is not to be doubted that Mr. Aldrich the arch-representative of the big interests expects the president to back down.

President Taft knows that he is right in his tariff views in demanding revision that will benefit the consumer and he knows that the masses are with him.

Will he continue to stand as the champion of the people and with the prospect of disrupting his party by vetoing the tariff measure or will he capitulate to the big interests which are the back bone of the republican party as it stands today?

Tart is the question of the hour. The final answer will determine whether President Taft is patriot or politician.

That the big interests have no thought of surrendering the goose that lays the golden egg was made evident in a controversy that took place on the floor of the senate the other day.

Senator Bailey in his straightforward way having intimated that the republican party was pledged to reduce the tariff taxes Senator Aldrich jumped in with the inquiry: "When did the republican party make any such promise?"

That utterance was an indirect confession that the big interests have never thought of revising the tariff downward for the benefit of the consumers.

Had that confession been made prior to the last national election it would have defeated the republican party—Oklahoman.

Protracted meeting grows in importance and interest every service. Never was the gospel presented so in our day clearer, simpler and more practical than is being presented by Rev. C. Stubbins. The large congregation present last night was a little crowded for seats but the brethren provided more today hence there will be ample room for all tonight. Do not fail to come every body and let us get right with God while these most precious opportunities are afforded.

A MOMENTOUS QUESTION.

But a Conclusion Is Reached Which Finally Affords Settlement.

T. O. Cullins Ada Okla.

Dear T. O.—I guess you will be rather surprised on getting a letter from me but no doubt you will extend full pardon when you learn that I have to ask you for a suggestion in a matter which is of no little importance.

I must say it has caused me many a sleepless night and days of anxiety. It is a subject concerning which I have hesitated to speak to any one. As I have known a whole community to be upset by the same trouble which now agitates me.

Yes many homes have been broken up by the same cause and I must know the worst I dare not tell my folks at home for I know there is only one decided answer in my distress. I come to you as a friend as I feel you understand me and would make a suggestion without fear or favor. I realize I am asking a great deal and while you are considering this I beg you to put aside all care and social joys and devote all your spare time with the proper consideration of the question.

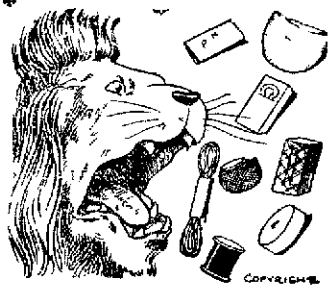

Don't you think it is time to send me some more COB cigars?

I am your friend

Governor at McAlester.

McAlester, Ok., April 27.—Gov. Haskell accompanied by Mrs. Haskell arrived here this afternoon. The governor was driven to the pentagon site and will go from here to Oklahoma City at mid-night. He said he would appoint a superior court judge for this county within a week that he thought there would be a friendly suit to determine if the board of regents of the new commission on public affairs shall contract for the buildings that he couldn't say if he would call a special election for submission of referendum and initiative proposals including the general election law that there was nothing in the report that he would call a special session of the legislature to more definitely fix the preference rights of the school land lessees that he would establish local dispensaries when a number of physicians and citizens in any locality petitioned for it. Scores of friends called on the Governor and Mrs. Haskell at the McFarland Hotel this evening.

Army Post at Ft. Sill

Washington, April 27.—President Taft has placed this approval upon the plan to establish at Fort Sill one of the largest military posts in the country. The president made this known to Senator T. P. Gore who called at the White House to inquire what was the executive mind in the matter.

Whether this work will be long delayed depends solely upon the condition of the finances relating particularly to the effectiveness of the new tariff bill.

President Taft let it be understood that while he is in favor of the improvements on a very large scale at Fort Sill yet it must be borne in mind that these are mighty exacting days in the government's strong box.

Judge Mahen Pleads That He Be Not Suspended From Office.

Yesterday afternoon an application was made by the attorneys for District Judge W. N. Mahen of Shawnee indicted for bribery and embezzlement to the supreme court for a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge John Carruthers now sitting in the district court of Pottawatomie county from issuing an order suspending Judge Mahen from office while charges are pending against him as had been asked by Attorney General West.

Mahen's attorneys claim that the statute allowing the suspension of county officers by the district court under similar circumstances does not apply to district judges.

Before the case was taken up here a message was received from Attorney General West at Tecumseh stating that a change of judge had been allowed and the matter was postponed until tomorrow morning to give the attorney general a chance to return and appear in the case.

ASSOCIATED PRESS AGAIN.

Report that Another Lynching Is Probable Is Without Foundation.

A report in the Dallas News and a few other papers this morning makes it appear that Oscar Peeler connected with the Bobbitt case and Dave and Ed Johnson connected with the Putnam case are in danger of being lynched by another mob.

Such reports bear the stamp of the associated press as far as we have been able to ascertain but they are dated from Ada and appear genuine. These reports are fabricated and without any foundation of truth is the opinion of every citizen of Ada with whom we have talked and it is deplorable that they should be circulated in such manner. The mob which lynched the quartette on the night of the 18th had a chance to make a clean sweep had they wanted to do so and to think that another mob would be organized for the purpose mentioned is preposterous to say the least.

The remains of Willie Dailey who died at Norman yesterday arrived here today and were interred at Roseville at three o'clock this afternoon. His parents reside seven miles west of Ada.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

Certain Ingredients That Really Grow Hair When Properly Combined

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered by science and in connection with Beta Naphthol which is both germicidal and antiseptic a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its natural nourishment and also creates a clean healthy condition of the scalp which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin although not a coloring matter or dye is a well-known ingredient for restoring the hair to its natural color when the loss of hair has been caused by a disease of the scalp.

These ingredients in proper combination with alcohol added as a stimulant and for its well defined nourishing properties perfect the most effective remedy that is known for scalp and hair troubles.

We have a remedy which is chiefly composed of these ingredients in combination with other extremely valuable medicinal agents. We guarantee it to positively cure dandruff and to grow hair even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair. If there is any itching left in the roots it will positively cure baldness. If the scalp has a glazed shiny appearance it is an indication that baldness is permanent but in every other instance baldness is curable.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease or loss of hair to try Rexall 93 Hair Tonic. If it does not cure dandruff and grow hair to the satisfaction of the user we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. We print this guarantee on every bottle. It has effected a positive cure in 93 per cent of cases where put to a practical test.

Rexall 93 Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular better than anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is prescribed. We urge you to try this preparation at our entire risk. Certainly we know of no better guarantee to give you. Gwin & Maves Co. West Main street, Ada, Okla.

Within denominational lines, and within the limits of toleration, there are not a few differences of opinion which Baptists may well discuss and pass on according to their several judgments. The questions lying outside of and beyond the limits marked by the Articles of Faith will have been adopted by most of the churches and which have been recently adopted by the get-together meetings in Little Rock Ark. It is known to a great many Baptist readers that there are two sets of Articles of Faith acceptable to American Baptists the New Hampshire Articles and the Philadelphia Articles. They are substantially the same and it is supposed no division would be likely to occur in any church over the difference between these two documents.

When the brethren representing different sets of opinions, antagonistic to the great Conventions in the country met in their get-together meeting in Little Rock and there and then adopted unanimously the New Hampshire Confession of Faith as a basis of union and co-operation they lined up with the denomination at large on basic principles. These articles as printed in Pendleton's Manual are almost universally accepted by our people. It is good after so much discussion and so many divisions, on minor points, that these brethren could at least agree with the denomination, in general on the basic principles of organization and work.

Perhaps it would be well in this connection to say some things about Articles of Faith. I am sure some one not well acquainted with the Baptist idea by reading this article might fall into error. Baptists hold that the New Testament is the law of Christianity, the law of the churches and the law of individual Christian life. A church can be a church without adopting any Articles of Faith. It therefore becomes a question why should we have Articles of Faith at all? It is to be supposed that the practice followed by millions of intelligent Baptists would have underlying it somewhere the element of reasonableness. Since the New Testament is the law of Christianity, why should we have Articles of Faith? The reason is not hard to find. It is to be supposed that the Articles of Faith set out what these subscribing to them believe the Scriptures teach on the several points treated. It would be an easy and cheap thing for a man to say, I accept the New Testament as the law of Christianity and yet interpret it altogether different from the true way. The Methodists might say, I accept the New Testament as the law of Christianity but understand the New Testament to teach sprinkling not immersion, for baptism. The Campbellites might say, and some do say, I accept the Scriptures as authoritative but I understand the scriptures to teach that baptism stands in the order of a means of salvation and that all the unbaptized are without the promise of salvation. The Unitarians might say, I believe the New Testament to be the law of Christianity but I do not believe in the divinity of Jesus Christ. People can only fellowship on their understanding of the truth and people who are not agreed cannot walk together. The Articles of Faith therefore are profitable to define the views of those who desire to enter into fellowship and co-operation with each other whether in church life or in the larger affairs of the Kingdom. Therefore the Articles of Faith serve a good purpose, and the churches do well to adopt them. The brethren in Little Rock did well to adopt them.

But no one would assume that the Articles of Faith express all of anybody's understanding as to scriptural teachings. They are not intended to do that. They are intended to touch on those vital points without agreement on which there could be no real union or co-operation. Very many questions lie beyond the Articles of Faith. They are not all we believe. Sometimes these other questions create no little stir. Take the millennium discussion the two main theories of which as to the second coming of the Savior are the premillennial and the post millennial. There is often intense discussion and now and then churches have divided on these theories. There is absolutely no wisdom in such a policy. Another question not passed on at all by the Articles of Faith which some of our brethren are very pronounced and very strong on is the question of tithing. Personally this writer thinks no Christian ought to give less than one tenth but he is nothing like as strong on tithing as a New Testament law as he is on Baptism. Such a question as that lies beyond the Articles of Faith and is within the limit of toleration that is to say differences on tithing or on other questions come in the same category. For instance, alien immersion. Among Baptists there are two views. One is that the germ of everything in the Kingdom is in the World which is the seed of the Kingdom. This view ignores all questions of administration. The present writer has very pronounced views to the effect that when the command to be baptized was given somebody was to do the baptizing and that the question of administration is not open to the wide world. That question lies beyond the Articles of Faith and it has been a question of toleration to be settled by churches for themselves. The same remark may be made about union meetings. This writer also has very pronounced views on union meetings. In all of his ministry of forty years he has never been in one. He can give good reasons for it. He wishes very much that the Baptists might avoid all entangling alliances. And so about days, Baster and such like but none of these questions are settled by the Articles of Faith. There are many other questions just like these coming up for discussion within denominational lines and they follow the ebb and flow of sentiment within the denomination itself.

Now it is important to say that when all the people in a church or any other body formally adopts a given statement of doctrine such as the New Hampshire Confession of Faith that every man who takes a part in such an adoption is bound to live up to the Articles of Faith. No man can with integrity afterwards read into the Articles of Faith what is not there and insist on the added matter becoming a part of the base of unity and co-operation, nor can he take from the Articles of Faith and insist that he may mutilate them, and yet stand in line with those who like himself agreed to the basis of union. All these observations are made with a view to a practical application to a general situation.

The brethren who adopted the New Hampshire Confession at Little Rock are bound by their own action. It is perfectly legitimate for them to oppose alien immersion union meetings, Easter services and a great many other things and this writer will wish them well in doing it and join them for none of these things look good to him but if they insist that differences on those subjects shall be reses of fellowship and co-operation they deny their own action and dishonor their own basis of fellowship and unity. The same thing must be said in our churches. This article is written to give emphasis to the point already made that when we come together as Baptists on a given basis agreed upon we must exercise that fine Christian grace of toleration and moderation as to matters lying beyond. And this article is written to emphasize still further the point that there always will be some men who see some things large while they do not see larger things at all. Some men cannot be followed valuable as they may be in some ways especially in calling attention to some truths that perhaps otherwise would be neglected in the general on going of things.

It will be a good thing for us if we remember that we are not likely on this mundane sphere to all see everything just alike and that if we are to do any large things for the Master it is absolutely necessary that we keep ourselves within bounds. For one this writer can live in fellowship with brethren who hold quite a number of views which appeal to him to be wrong. The apostolic churches were not perfect. The apostolic preachers were not perfect. The general plan of the New Testament is to get together in the churches on things that are essential and then grow a church life, lopping off errors and filling out where there is lack of development. Though it is not in the nature of an argument at all, it may give emphasis to what has been written and a practical turn to all that has been written to say that brethren who hold to any one truth such as tithing the present or the past view of the millennium and put undue emphasis on it making it too much a part of the whole will not only fail to carry any large number of people with them but will destroy their own opportunities to do good in a general way. Thus writer once, with all earnestness presented this view of Dr. John Hall the greatest preacher of his sort this writer has known and he conceded the point. It was at that point that he side-tracked a great ministry. I shall never cease to regret it for with more circumspection he might have done far more for strict Baptist views. There is such a thing as holding the truth in proper proportion and keeping in reach of people. We write this article for everybody, but especially for those who need it the most.

TALKS ON ADVERTISING—

How Alexander Untied the Knot.

By Herbert Kaufman.

Alexander the Great was being shown the Gordian Knot. "It can't be untied," they told him, "every man who tried to do it fell down."

But Alexander was not discouraged because the rest had flunked. He simply realized that he would have to go at it in a different way. And instead of wasting time with his fingers he drew his sword and slashed it apart.

Every day a great business general is shown some knot which has proven too much for his competitors, and he succeeds because he finds a way to cut it. The fumbler has no show so long as there is a brother merchant who doesn't waste time trying to accomplish the impossible—who takes lessons from the failures about him and avoids the methods which were their downfall.

The knottiest problems in trade are:

- 1—The problem of location.
- 2—The problem of getting the crowds.
- 3—The problem of keeping the crowds.
- 4—The problem of minimizing fixed expenses.
- 5—The problem of creating a valuable good will.

None of these knots is going to be untied by fumbling fingers. They are too complicated. They're all involved together—twisted and entangled over and about each other—so intertwined that they can't be solved singly—like the Gordian Knot they must be cut through at one stroke. And you can't cut the knot with any sword except the newspaper—because

- 1—A store that is constantly before the people makes its own neighborhood.
- 2—Crowds can be brought from anywhere by daily advertising.
- 3—Customers can always be held by inducements.
- 4—Fixed expenses can only be reduced by increasing the volume of sales.
- 5—Good will can only be created through publicity.

Advertising is breeding new giants every year and making them more powerful every hour. Publicity is the sustaining food of a powerful store and the only strengthening nourishment for a weak one. The retailer who delays his entry into advertising must pay the penalty of his procrastination by facing more giant competitors as every month of opportunity slips by.

Personal ability as a close purchaser and as a clever seller doesn't count for a hang so long as other men are equally well posted and wear the sword of publicity to boot. They are able to tie your business into constantly closer knots, while you cannot retaliate because there is no knot which their advertising cannot cut for them.

Yesterday you lost a customer—today they took one—tomorrow they'll get another. You cannot cope with their competition because you haven't the weapon with which to oppose it. You can't untie your Gordian Knot because it can't be untied—you've got to cut it.

You must become an advertiser or you must pay the penalty of incompetence.

You not only require the newspaper to fight for a more hopeful tomorrow, but to keep today's situation from becoming hopeless.

THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

CHANCE FOR A PRACTICAL TEST
NEARLY IMMINENT

MANY PROPOSITIONS INVOLVED

Besides "New Jerusalem" Scheme
Woman Suffrage and State Institutions are Involved.

Guthrie Okla. April 27—New Jerusalem high license and local option women suffrage and several important minor questions will come directly before the people of Oklahoma at a new date and they will be given an opportunity to express themselves thereon under the initiative and referendum clause of the state constitution.

Nine distinct propositions are now being framed either for the initiative or the referendum. Important among these is the high license and local option question and this will probably occasion the hardest fight. The Sons of Washington an Oklahoma secret society whose great object is to defeat the prohibitory law of the state is directly back of the movement. They have in addition the heavy co-operation of the Model License League and the State German Society.

One of the most interesting and at the same time an important question to be initiated is State Senator Campbell Russell's scheme of permanently locating the state capital on a square of land somewhere near the center of the state blocking up the square into a city plan according to the best "City-beautiful" authorities selling the lot and using the proceeds therefrom to build model state buildings and requiring the inhabitants of the city to build and decorate according to a certain central plan. Senator Russell originated this in his first legislature and christened it New Jerusalem. This was to a long time a joke though it was admitted to its practicality.

Senator Russell recently secured the 22,000 signatures to the petition necessary for getting an election on the question and believes that the petition will be in the hands of the governor by May 1.

The republican movement to get the referendum against the general election law passed by the last legislature vies with the woman suffrage petition in interest to the people of Oklahoma.

The Oklahoma Women's Suffrage association is back of the petition circulating for an amendment to the constitution to give both sexes equal rights to the ballot. The movement in addition has the support of the socialist vote of the state—no small factor—as the last election gave them more than 20,000 votes. The socialists number many women among their ranks and though they have taken no formal part it is understood that all socialists so far approached have signed the petition asking the initiative and at the same time signified their intention to vote for the "woman's side."

The socialists are also in with the republicans to an extent in the movement getting up a petition to call an election to vote down the general election bill passed by the last legislature. More conservative republicans while claiming that the law gives the party in power the best of the deal admit that it is no more one-sided than any other election law as a rule and that the republicans themselves if in power would frame one equally partisan. The republican state central committee, however, and the republican press have decided that the law is a vulnerable point and intend to make a fierce attack on it. Both the woman suffrage petition and the petition for the referendum against the election law will probably be in the governor's hands by June 1.

Other questions pending include the effort of school land lessees to refer the school land sale bill passed by the last legislature which authorizes the sale of 1,000,000 acres of state school land valued at $15,000,000 others are fighting the school land leasing bill by which the 3,105,000 acres of school land are leased.

Senator Russell in addition to initiating his "New Jerusalem" bill is getting out petitions to abolish or suspend half a dozen big state institutions authorized or located by the last legislature on the grounds that such institutions should not be located until the state capital is permanently placed.

SUFFRAGISTS ENCOURAGED.

Campaign for 40,000 Names Bids Fair to Be Successful.

Advocates of woman's suffrage are feeling greatly encouraged over the outlook, according to a report at Oklahoma City headquarters yesterday.

E. A. Sanky and Mrs. Adeha Stephens president of the Oklahoma City Suffrage association are at work out in the state and have sent word that petitions are being signed up rapidly. Good reports have come in from Payne, Blaine and Caddo counties while from Lincoln county came a request for 200 more petitions meaning that 1,000 more names could be secured there.

The workers in Oklahoma City are making no complaint and always return with their petitions completely filled.

It will take about 40,000 names to secure the submission of the constitutional amendment to a vote.

Vote in Yesterday's Election.

As stated yesterday there was very little interest manifested in the city election as the democratic ticket was not contested by any opposing ticket whatever. The vote by wards is as follows: First ward 77 second ward 6 third ward 35 fourth ward 48. For the election of school trustees from the attached territory 14 votes were polled.

Grand Jury Working.

The special grand jury which commenced yesterday the investigation of the recent lynchings is down to business other than this there is nothing which could be secured for publication. Just how long they will be in session is not known at this time.

NEW RULER FOR EMPIRE OF TURKEY

YOUNG TURKS CELEBRATE THE ENVIRONMENT.

Mehammed Reschad Effendi Succeeds
Abdul Hamid Whose Reign the People Have Opposed.

Constantinople April 27—The reign of Hamid II ended today with his deposition and the accession of his brother Mehmed Reschad Effendi as Mehmed V a variation of Mahomet II being considered in appropriate to assume the precise name of the prophet Mehmed V is the thirty-fifth Sovereign of Turkey in male descent of the house of Osman the founder of the empire and the twenty-ninth Sultan since the conquest of Constantinople.

The two houses of parliament, meeting as a national assembly in the forenoon approved the decree of deposition which was read by the Sheikh-ul-Islam Chief of the Ulama and Supreme Judge on ecclesiastical questions. The document recites that Abdul Hamid's acts were contrary to the sacred law and set forth a long list of crimes the whole making a terrible indictment. The Assembly chose Mehmed Reschad Effendi as Sultan and appointed committee to notify the deposed sovereign and his successor of its action. The firing of 101 guns announced to the waiting people that a new Sultan had been proclaimed.

The ceremonies connected with the transfer of the power were simple. The newly-chosen ruler came from his palace in gala attire and proceeded through the streets lined with troops and cheering thousands and took the oath at the war office. He then proceeded to the parliament and later went to the Dolmabahische Palace as head of the empire where for so many years he had practically been a prisoner.

Martial law was relaxed tonight and the people gave themselves over to celebrating the victory of the Young Turk party and the end of Abdul Hamid's reign. Many buildings were illuminated and thousands of rounds were fired by the soldiers. General good humor prevailed everywhere. The question of the new cabinet has not yet been settled but it is thought that Ahmed Riza will be Grand Vizier while some of his associates will probably be Iltima Pasha the former Premier as Minister of the Interior Djavid Bey as Minister of Finance and Rifaat Pasha as Minister of Foreign Affairs.

A Self Explanatory Letter

Glenn Okla. April 22—Mr. Bone Hardin Ada Okla. Dear Sir and Friend I am somewhat at a loss to know how to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to the good citizens of Ada and Pontotoc county for the great service they have rendered to the new state and if there are any after claps I want them to draw on me for one hundred dollars. Your old friend J. S. Alverson Glenn Okla.

SENATOR BAILEY WILL STAND PAT

WILL PUT UP STRONG FIGHT TO RETAIN HIS SEAT.

Opposition to State Wide Prohibition
Has Weakened Him in Some
Sections

Washington April 27—In Texas a situation has arisen threatening the seat of Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey in the United States senate which is attracting national attention. Senator Bailey is the fighting leader of the democratic minority in the senate. While his colleague Senator Culbertson is technically the democratic leader and is chairman of the caucus yet everyone understands that it is senator Bailey who is expected to stand up and make the catch-as-catch-can fights on the floor.

State wide prohibition has become an issue in Texas. Senator Bailey has publicly aligned himself against the movement. This has led Dr. Rankin of Dallas a prohibition leader in the state and hitherto an ardent supporter of Bailey to announce that he has withdrawn his allegiance to

USUAL DEMOCRATIC MAJORITIES
BUT LIVELY CONTESTS

City Councils in Principal Places
More or Less Mixed.

Municipal elections at other places over the state yesterday were not so quiet as the one held at Ada yet the democrats were generally successful in the election of the principal officers.

At Lawton Henry Boyle democrat was elected mayor and the council is democratic with one exception. At El Reno the republicans elected the mayor and one alderman the rest of the council is democratic. The hardest fought campaign in the state probably was at Oklahoma City where Henry M. Seales democrat was re-elected over George Dodson republican by a majority of about 500. Others elected are Bob Pannan republican city clerk John Hubarka republican chief of police Will Guthrie republican treasurer of school board J. L. Highley democrat police judge Elmer Trueblood democrat city treasurer Will Walters republican street commissioner J. S. Luvord republican city attorney. At Okmulgee a complete independent ticket was elected with the exception of the mayor and the city clerk who were republicans. At Muskogee A. F. McLean democrat was elected mayor the majority in the council will also be democratic. At McAlester the democrats elected the mayor and five aldermen while the republicans secured seven seats in the council. At Ardmore the democrats made a clean sweep and the new administration at that place starts under the commission form of government. At Sapulpa the democrats win by the narrow margin of five votes in the race for mayor. Normally the city of Norman is 150 democratic but in yesterday's election the republicans made a clean sweep with but one exception but the margin was close. In Guthrie the republicans of course made a clean sweep. Shawnee will have a republican mayor and a democratic council. Bird after a hot contest came out with a democratic mayor two democratic and four republican councilmen. At Chickasha the democratic ticket was elected. Practically all of the smaller towns in the state went democratic.

Board of Advisors to Form.

Guthrie Ok. April 27—The State Board of Affairs recently appointed by Gov. Hiskell will organize tomorrow by electing one of the members chairman and the election of a secretary. It is understood that Virgil Harlow of Shawnee will be given the latter place. He was manager of Attorney General West's campaign in the first State election and was a candidate in the democratic primaries last year for member of the legislature from Pottawatomie county.

TARIFF TO BE MEASURED.

Regardless of assurances coming from his intimate friends Mr. Tatt was an unknown quantity during the presidential campaign and is so regarded today by the people of the country at large.

The president's measurement will soon be accurately taken however. His action relative to the tariff bill as it will finally come to him for signature or veto will definitely determine his stature as a patriot and a statesman.

Senator Aldrich is well advised as to President Tatt's opposition to the tariff measure as it has been framed by Aldrich and yet the latter continues to make it more reactionary and intolerable from a down-to-earth standpoint. It is not to be doubted that Mr. Aldrich the arch-representative of the big interests expects the president to back down.

President Tatt knows that he is right in his tariff views in demanding revision that will benefit the consumer and he knows that the masses are with him.

Will he continue to stand as the champion of the people and with the prospect of disrupting his party by vetoing the tariff measure or will he capitulate to the big interests which are the backbone of the republican party as it stands today? That is the question of the hour.

The final answer will determine whether President Tatt is patriot or politician.

That the big interests have no thought of surrendering the goose that lays the golden egg was made evident in a controversy that took place on the floor of the senate the other day.

Senator Bailey in his straightforward way having intimated that the republican party was pledged to reduce the tariff taxes Senator Aldrich jumped in with the inquiry:

"When did the republican party make any such promise?"

That utterance was an indirect confession that the big interests have never thought of revising the tariff downward for the benefit of the consumers.

Had that confession been made prior to the last national election it would have defeated the republican party—Oklahomans.

Protracted meeting grows in importance and interest every service. Never was the gospel presented like in our day clearer simpler and more practical than is being presented by Rev. C. Stubblefield. The large congregation present last night was a little crowded for seats but the brethren provided more today hence there will be ample room for all tonight. Do not fail to come every body and let us get right with God while these most precious opportunities are afforded.

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES.

Being a few items of interest from the News' correspondent at Nation's Capitol.

Senator Aldrich in opening the tariff debate in the senate stated that the last congress appropriated $50,000,000 more for the next fiscal year than was needed. This is the sort of economy the tax payers are expected to ratify.

The sugar trust steel trust and lumber trust are still in the saddle and riding rough shod over the unprotected consumers of the country. Senator Gore has moved to place microscopes on the free list so that the people can tell if the tariff has been reduced.

The census bill is still hanging fire in the conference committee.

Congressman McGuire has returned to Oklahoma. The McGuire voting machine have just decided to nominate Judge Garber for governor. Gishmull the Little Giant and others are to be run in on the side track.

Congressman Carter is inspecting the Panama Canal.

Dick T. Voigau is the only congressman in the city from Oklahoma. He hasn't quite got his conscience and countenance straight enough to face the man in the sod-house that wants free lumber.

Senator Owen addressed the Daughters of the American Revolution last Tuesday night.

The insurgent Republicans of whom there are none from Oklahoma are making life miserable for the Cannon. Aldrich stand pat trust combination.

Senator Gore has received a threatening letter from a would be post master in his part of the state whose confirmation is being held up. The senator says it is not the first attempt which has ever been made to blackmail him during his official life but that no threats or injury will ever terrorize him into deserting his duty his conscience or his constituents—J. NEVADA TO REPEAT.

Interesting Dramatic Production Will Be Reproduced by Request.

At the request of quite a number of citizens and business men who failed to see the home talent play Nevada at the opera house last Saturday night the company has consented to present the play again tomorrow night. This is really a first class show and if you fail to see it you have missed something worth while. It is worth the price of admission to see Jim Fannintley in the role of Jube the negro. He is there with the goods and can put the typical southern coon badly in the discard.

A News reporter heard a prominent business man make the remark yesterday that he had paid a dollar and a dollar and a half to see shows that were far behind Nevada in every respect and so have we.

Jefferson City April 27—The senate committee on constitutional amendments will report the proposed amendment for state-wide prohibition tomorrow but it will carry a tax rider and a provision for effectiveness in 1911 instead of 1913 as decided by the house. The fate of the measure will depend upon the reception accorded these changes in the senate as it is considered practically certain that the house will refuse to concur in the amendment providing for the tax rider. This portion of the proposition was voted down in the lower branch by a good vote.

Dear T. O.—I guess you will be rather surprised on getting a letter from me but no doubt you will extend full pardon when you learn that I have to ask you for a suggestion in a matter which is of no little importance.

I must say it has caused me many a sleepless night and days of anxiety this a subject concerning which I have hesitated to speak to any one. As I have known a whole community to be upset by the same trouble which now agitates me.

Yes many homes have been broken up by the same cause and I must know the worst I dare not tell my folks at home for I know there is only one decided answer in my distress I come to you as a friend as I feel you understand me and would make a suggestion without fear or favor I realize I am asking a great deal and while you are considering this I beg you to put aside all care and social joys and devote all your spare time with the proper consideration of the question.

Governor at McAlester.

McAlester, Ok., April 27.—Gov. Haskell accompanied by Mrs. Haskell arrived here this afternoon. The Governor was driven to the penitentiary site and will go from here to Oklahoma City at mid-night. He said he would appoint a superior court judge for this county within a week that he thought there would be a friendly suit to determine if the board of regents of the new commission on public affairs shall contract for the buildings that he couldn't say if he would call a special election for submission of referendum and initiative proposals including the general election law that there was nothing in the report that he would call a special session of the legislature to more definitely fix the preference rights of the school land lessees that he would establish local dispensaries when a number of physicians and citizens in any locality petitioned for it. Army Post at Ft. Sill

Washington, April 27.—President Taft has placed his approval upon the plan to establish at Fort Sill one of the largest military posts in the country. The president made this known to Senator T. P. Gore who called at the White House to inquire what was the executive mind in the matter

Whether this work will be long delayed depends solely upon the condition of the finances relating particularly to the effectiveness of the new tariff bill.

President Taft let it be understood that while he is in favor of the improvements, on a very large scale at Fort Sill, yet it must be borne in mind that these are mighty exacting days in the government's strong box

Judge Mabon Pleads That He Be Not Suspended From Office.

Yesterday afternoon an application was made by the attorneys for District Judge W. N. Mabon of Shawnee indicted for bribery and embezzlement to the supreme court for a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge John Carruthers now sitting in the district court of Pottawatomie county, from issuing an order suspending Judge Mabon from office while charges are pending against him as had been asked by Attorney General West

Mabon's attorneys claim that the statute allowing the suspension of county officers by the district court under similar circumstances does not apply to district judges

Before the case was taken up here a message was received from Attorney General West at Tecumseh stating that a change of judge had been allowed and the matter was postponed until tomorrow morning to give the attorney general a chance to return and appear in the case

ASSOCIATED PRESS AGAIN.

Report that Another Lynching is Probable is Without Foundation.

A report in the Dallas News and a few other papers this morning makes it appear that Oscar Peeler connected with the Bobbitt case and Dave and Ed Johnson connected with the Putnam case are in danger of being lynched by another mob

Such reports bear the stamp of the associated press as far as we have been able to ascertain but they are dated from Ada and appear genuine. That these reports are fabricated and without any foundation of truth is the opinion of every citizen of Ada with whom we have talked and it is deplorable that they should be circulated in such manner. The mob which lynched the quartette on the night of the 18th had a chance to make a clean sweep had they wanted to do so and to think that another mob would be organized for the purpose mentioned is preposterous to say the least

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

Certain Ingredients That Really Grow Hair When Properly Combined

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered by science and in connection with Beta Naphthol which is both germicidal and antiseptic a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its natural nourishment and also creates a clean healthy condition of the scalp which prevents the development of new germs

Pilocarpin although not a coloring matter or dye is a well-known ingredient for restoring the hair to its natural color when the loss of hair has been caused by a disease of the scalp

These ingredients in proper combination with alcohol added as a stimulant and for its well defined nourishing properties perfect the most effective remedy that is known for scalp and hair troubles

We have a remedy which is chiefly composed of these ingredients in combination with other extremely valuable medicinal agents. We guarantee it to positively cure dandruff and to grow hair even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair. If there is any vitality left in the roots it will positively cure baldness. If the scalp has a glazed shiny appearance, it's an indication that baldness is permanent but in every other instance baldness is curable

We want every one troubled with scalp disease or loss of hair to try Rexall 93 Hair Tonic. If it does not cure dandruff and grow hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. We print this guarantee on every bottle. It has effected a positive cure in 93 per cent of cases where put to a practical test

Rexall 93 Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular better than anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is prescribed. We urge you to try this preparation at our entire risk. Certainly we know of no better guarantee to give you Gwin & Mave Co. West Main street, Ada, Okla.

From the Baptist Journal

Within denominational lines, and within the limits of toleration, there are not a few differences of opinion which Baptists may well discuss and pass on according to their several judgments. The questions lying outside of and beyond the limits marked by the Articles of Faith which have been adopted by most of the churches and which have been recently adopted by the get-together meetings in Little Rock Ark. It is known to a great many Baptist readers that there are two sets of Articles of Faith acceptable to American Baptists: the New Hampshire Articles and the Philadelphia Articles. They are substantially the same and it is supposed no division would be likely to occur in any church over the difference between these two documents.

When the brethren representing different sets of opinions, antagonistic to the great Conventions in the country met in their get-together meeting in Little Rock and there and then adopted unanimously the New Hampshire Confession of Faith as a basis of union and co-operation they lined up with the denomination at large on basic principles. These articles as printed in Pendleton's Manual are almost universally accepted in our people. It is good after so much discussion and so many divisions, on minor points, that these brethren could at least agree with the denomination, in general on the basic principles of organization and work.

Perhaps it would be well in this connection to say some things about Articles of Faith. Let some one not well acquainted with the Baptist idea by reading this article might fall into error. Baptists hold that the New Testament is the law of Christianity, the law of the churches and the law of individual Christian life. A church can be a church without adopting any Articles of Faith. It therefore becomes a question why should we have Articles of Faith at all? It is to be supposed that the practice followed by millions of intelligent Baptists would have undervalued it somewhere the element of reasonableness. Since the New Testament is the law of Christianity, why should we have Articles of Faith? The reason is not hard to find. If we think for a moment that the Articles of Faith set out what these subscribing to them believe the Scriptures teach on the several points treated. It would be an easy and cheap thing for a man to say, I accept the New Testament as the law of Christianity and yet interpret it altogether different from the true way. The Methodists might say, I accept the New Testament as the law of Christianity but understand the New Testament to teach sprinkling not immersion, for baptism. The Campbellites might say, and some do say, I accept the Scriptures as authoritative but I understand the Scriptures to teach that baptism stands in the order of a means of salvation and that all the unbaptized are without the promise of salvation. The Unitarians might say, I believe the New Testament to be the law of Christianity but I do not believe in the divinity of Jesus Christ. People can only fellowship on their understanding of the truth and people who are not agreed cannot walk together. The Articles of Faith therefore are profitable to define the views of those who desire to enter into fellowship and co-operation with each other whether in church life or in the larger affairs of the Kingdom. Therefore the Articles of Faith serve a good purpose and the churches do well to adopt them. The brethren in Little Rock did well to adopt them.

But no one would assume that the Articles of Faith express all of anybody's understanding as to scriptural teachings. They are not intended to do that. They are intended to touch on those vital points without agreement on which there could be no real union or co-operation. Very many questions lie beyond the Articles of Faith. They are not all we believe. Sometimes these other questions create no little stir. Take the millennium discussion, the two main theories of which as to the second coming of the Savior are the premillennial and the postmillennial. There is often intense discussion and now and then churches have divided on these theories. There is absolutely no wisdom in such a policy. Another question not passed on at all by the Articles of Faith which some of our brethren are very pronounced and very strong on is the question of tithing. Personally this writer thinks no Christian ought to give less than one tenth but he is nothing like as strong on tithing as a New Testament law as he is on Baptism. Such a question as that lies beyond the Articles of Faith and is within the limit of toleration that is to say differences on tithing or on other questions come in the same category. For instance, alien immersion. Among Baptists there are two views. One is that the germ of everything in the Kingdom is in the World which is the seed of the Kingdom. This view ignores all questions of administration. The present writer has very pronounced views to the effect that when the command to be baptized was given somebody was to do the baptizing and that the question of administration is not open to the wide world. That question lies beyond the Articles of Faith and it has been a question of toleration to be settled by churches for themselves. The same remark may be made about union meetings. This writer also has very pronounced views on union meetings. In all of his ministry of forty years he has never been in one. He can give good reasons for it. He wishes very much that the Baptists might avoid all entangling alliances. And so about days, Easter and such like but none of these questions are settled by the Articles of Faith. There are many other questions just like these coming up for discussion within denominational lines and they follow the ebb and flow of sentiment within the denomination itself.

Now it is important to say that when all the people in a church or any other body formally adopts a given statement of doctrine such as the New Hampshire Confession of Faith that every man who takes a part in such an adoption is bound to live up to the Articles of Faith. No man can with integrity afterwards read into the Articles of Faith what is not there and insist on the added matter becoming a part of the base of unity and co-operation.

tion, nor can he take from the Articles of Faith and insist that he may mutilate them, and yet stand in line with those who like himself agreed to the basis of union. All these observations are made with a view to a practical application to a general situation.

The brethren who adopted the New Hampshire Confession at Little Rock are bound by their own action. It is perfectly legitimate for them to oppose alien immersion union meetings, Easter services and a great many other things and this writer will wish them well in doing it and join them for none of these things look good to him but if they insist that differences on those subjects shall be issues of fellowship and co-operation they deny their own action and dishonor their own basis of fellowship and unity. The same thing must be said in our churches. This article is written to give emphasis to the point already made that when we come together as Baptists on a given basis agreed upon we must exercise that fine Christian grace of toleration and moderation as to matters lying beyond. And this article is written to emphasize still further the point that there always will be some men who see some things large while they do not see larger things at all. Some men cannot be followed valuable as they may be in some ways especially in calling attention to some truths that perhaps otherwise would be neglected in the general on going of things.

It will be a good thing for us if we remember that we are not likely on this mundane sphere to all see everything just alike and that if we are to do any large things for the Master it is absolutely necessary that we keep ourselves within bounds. For one this writer can live in fellowship with brethren who hold quite a number of views which appear to him to be wrong. The apostolic churches were not perfect. The apostolic preachers were not perfect. The general plan of the New Testament is to get together in the churches on things that are essential and then grow a church life, lopping off errors and filling out where there is lack of development.

Though it is not in the nature of an argument at all, it may give emphasis to what has been written and a practical turn to all that has been written to say that brethren who hold to any one truth such as tithing the present or the past view of the millennium and put undue emphasis on it making it too much a part of the whole will not only fail to carry any large number of people with them but will destroy their own opportunities to do good in a general way. This writer once, with all earnestness presented this view of Dr. John Hall the greatest preacher of his sort this writer has known and he conceded the point. It was at that point that he side-tracked a great ministry. I shall never cease to regret it for with more circumspection he might have done far more for strict Baptist views. There is such a thing as holding the truth in proper proportion and keeping in reach of people. We write this article for everybody, but especially for those who need it the most.

TALKS ON ADVERTISING—

How Alexander Untied the Knot.

By Herbert Kaufman.

Alexander the Great was being shown the Gordian Knot. "It can't be untied," they told him, "every man who tried to do it fell down."

But Alexander was not discouraged because the rest had flunked. He simply realized that he would have to go at it in a different way. And instead of wasting time with his fingers he drew his sword and slashed it apart.

Every day a great business general is shown some knot which has proven too much for his competitors, and he succeeds because he finds a way to cut it. The fumbler has no show so long as there is a brother merchant who doesn't waste time trying to accomplish the impossible—who takes lessons from the failures about him and avoids the methods which were their downfall.

The knottiest problems in trade are:

- 1—The problem of location.
- 2—The problem of getting the crowds.
- 3—The problem of keeping the crowds.
- 4—The problem of minimizing fixed expenses.
- 5—The problem of creating a valuable good will.

None of these knots is going to be untied by fumbling fingers. They are too complicated. They're all involved together—twisted and entangled over and about each other—so intertwined that they can't be solved singly—like the Gordian Knot they must be cut through at one stroke. And you can't cut the knot with any sword except the newspaper—because

- 1—A store that is constantly before the people makes its own neighborhood.
- 2—Crowds can be brought from anywhere by daily advertising.
- 3—Customers can always be held by inducements.
- 4—Fixed expenses can only be reduced by increasing the volume of sales.
- 5—Good will can only be created through publicity.

Advertising is breeding new giants every year and making them more powerful every hour. Publicity is the sustaining food of a powerful store and the only strengthening nourishment for a weak one. The retailer who delays his entry into advertising must pay the penalty of his procrastination by facing more giant competitors as every month of opportunity slips by.

Personal ability as a close purchaser and as a clever seller doesn't count for as long as other men are equally well posted and wear the sword of publicity to boot. They are able to tie your business into constantly closer knots, while you cannot retaliate because there is no knot which their advertising cannot cut for them.

Yesterday you lost a customer—today they took one—tomorrow they'll get another. You cannot cope with their competition because you haven't the weapon with which to oppose it. You can't untie your Gordian Knot because it can't be untied—you've got to cut it.

You must become an advertiser or you must pay the penalty of incompetence.

You not only require the newspaper to fight for a more hopeful tomorrow, but to keep today's situation from becoming hopeless.
